

Stefania Matarazzo

Stefania is so excited to be performing for the annual St. Clair Gardens Corn Fest! She is a local Toronto artist that has been performing all her life. She specializes in musical theatre and has been performing with a musical theatre company at York University for the last 5 years. As a youth she studied vocal music at the Academy of Music in Toronto, and continued to study music through high school and her school's choir and Drama Company. Stefania is endlessly grateful for the support from her friends and family, and looks forward to following her passion for singing and performing!
